

Fallen Asleep.

Little Arven La Rue McKaughn, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Foster McKaughn, died on Sunday evening, October 15th, 1892, at 9:30; aged ten years and one day. Funeral services were conducted in the Stephensport Baptist church. No minister being present, the service was conducted by Bro. Napper, who read from the Sacred Scripture, and led in prayer. Mrs. R. A. Brashear presided at the organ and conducted the singing in a very impressive manner. His remains were then laid to rest in the old cemetery near the church.

He died of a relapse from scarlet fever. Although his suffering was very great, his mind was perfectly bright to the last. A short time before he died he was heard trying to sing, and on being asked what he was trying to sing, he replied, "Jesus Saves." It can truly be said of him, "he has fallen asleep," as several hours before he breathed his last all pain seemed to leave him, and he passed off into such a quiet, easy sleep that it could scarcely be perceived that the end had come, they thought it only sleep, and

"Their very hopes, belied their fears, They thought him dying when he slept And sleeping when he died."

Arvin was a bright, intelligent little boy of a lively cheerful disposition, so much so, that his playmates always liked to have him with them; his great love for his papa and mama and his little sister was unbounded. He will be greatly missed at school, Sunday School, and at play, but most grievously missed in his own home. And yet the stricken ones have the blessed assurance that he is now a "Child of the King." And there is great comfort in knowing that while they mourn for him, they know that he is among the blessed, and that he was snatched away by the God, on whom he called so much during his sickness, before his little feet had ever traversed the paths of sin, or his little hands had ever sown the seed of recklessness, or his mind garnered up its bitter fruit. He has passed the portals and is now waiting for the loved ones to come to him.

"He is not dead the child of our affection, But gone unto that better school, Where he no longer needs our poor protection, Where Christ himself doth rule."

RACHAEL B. LAY, STEPHENSPORT, KY., Oct. 19, '92.

He declares it to be the "best remedy for coughs and croup." Mr. D. T. Good, Columbia, Tenn., writes: "I keep Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in the house all the time. It is the best remedy for cough and croup I ever used."

We'll Lose Votes.

The new voting system ordered for Kentucky for the November elections will decrease the vote of the state between 35,000 and 50,000, and it is safe to predict that more than half of these votes will come from the Democratic party. Never was such a complicated ballot ever made for the American people; it is a jumble from start to finish, and even an improper folding of the paper disfranchises the voter; there does not exist to-day a man of sufficient intelligence to vote correctly under the new system until he is schooled in the process; the voter is shoved into a tight box and given three minutes in which to vote; one wrong stroke of his pen and his ballot is rendered worthless; an educated man couldn't vote correctly in twenty minutes and the ignorant will never learn, because they won't try.

The reason the Democratic party will suffer under the new law is because the Democrats are careless, and many of them who live in rural places are ignorant. Some of them cannot learn to vote the new way and others will not try. On the other hand, the Republicans are already holding night schools; the negroes have been supplied with dummy ballots and are practicing and teaching one another. —THE GIRL.

Len Knows.

Mr. Len Cashman, the popular Assessor of Breckenridge county, was in town Friday. Mr. Cashman says the Democrats in Breckenridge are in better shape than they were a year ago, when they elected Severs over the combined forces of the Republicans and Populists. —Meade County Messenger.

A reported outbreak of Cholera, at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not Cholera but a violent dysentery which is almost as severe and dangerous as Cholera. Mr. Walter Wilford, a prominent merchant of Jamestown, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by A. R. Fisher, Druggist.

"Old Friends." If the portrait of some grand old man who lived in the early days of the century could "materialize," and, stepping down, take her place beside the "tailor made girl" of today, the difference would be no more marked than that between the good ship Constitution and a modern "ocean grayhound." Nevertheless, in spite of the topheaviness of the old ship as compared with the new, if the two sailed down our harbor there would be no necessity for an order of "Hats off," and our heartbeats would tell us for which rang out the "three times three."

Well does this great foremother of ours command both love and reverence. Stanch was she with the strength of oak from the forest primeval; unwavering ever as the pole star in the path of duty, and like a true woman of the olden time, ere "rights" and "suffrage" had lifted their heads from the neither chaos, she obeyed her master, while he, true and brave man of the olden time that he was loved and honored her. —Jann do

THE PERFECT FRIEND.

One only friend we have Attested sure: One only love we ours That will endure. All other friends are dear Who give them for our joy And leave us here.

All other loves are sweet: He knows how sweet Of whom and with what lack For love endure.

But friends however true This life will test, And they will fall as oft Who know us best.

And loves however strong Must wither and decay, Misfortunes may divide, New ties estrange.

Forest of all will come Some and offend: Most will cheat and doubt Drive friendship hence.

Oh, slow of heart to learn What yet we own— One only perfect friend Hath any known!

Mr. Chas. Carman, from Petersburg, Ill., writes: "I know Salvation Oil to be a very good remedy for neuralgia, rheumatism, burns, tooth-aches and cuts. We are never without it."

Idiosyncrasies Don't Count.

"Madam," said the street car conductor to a young lady in a blue calico frock, "you have a dog under your shawl, and you must leave the car."

"What! Leave the car!" vociferated the woman. "I have paid my fare and I'm going to stick right where I am."

"Then I shall put you off," replied the disciplinarian in blue.

All at once a law point came into the woman's head. "Give me back my fare," she said. "I got in here in good faith, and when I paid my five cents a contract was completed. You must either carry it out or return my cash. I'm not responsible because your cranky directors don't like dogs."

The street car official stopped the car and hailed a policeman. The point was stated, and the thief catcher, after pondering for a few moments, observed:

"I don't judge nor I ain't no jury, but I claim to have some sense."

"Under your system you might make rules that passengers mustn't wear red neckties or red noses or three dollar trousers, and after they had paid fares show 'em the rules and put them off."

"There is no end to the rules you might make to bunko folks out of their ride, and every time a chap looked cross-eyed you could turn to rule No. 234, providing that he mustn't look cross-eyed and then dump him in the gutter."

"The thing isn't fair. There ain't no law to it and it don't go."

Turning to the young woman he said: "You stay where you are, mum," and to the conductor, "If you try to put her off without giving her back her fare I'll club your head off."

Ting went the bell and on went the car, dog, young woman and all. —New York Herald.

There is no use of any one suffering with the cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know. —W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigations proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This Remedy was used there with great success. For sale by A. R. Fisher, Druggist.

A Sight in a Graveyard. Two visitors to Trinity churchyard, in lower Broadway, attracted a large share of public attention Wednesday afternoon. One was a well dressed blind man and the other was a boy of sixteen or eighteen years of age, probably a relative of the blind man. The boy led his sightless companion to the grass bordered slab that bears the name of Charlotte Temple. Dropping on his knees at the side of the grave the blind man passed his hands eagerly over the face of the stone and an expression of supreme gratification came into his countenance when his fingers touched the sunken letters of the name. The boy called his attention to that part of the slab from which all of the original inscription except the name is said to have been cut.

There is a hollow place there at least 1 1/2 inches deep. It forms a basin to catch water for the birds to drink and bathe in. It was nearly full of water on Wednesday afternoon, and the blind man dabbed in the little pool gently. He hovered over the grave for several minutes, and became an object of curiosity to at least a hundred persons who stood on the sidewalk and watched him through the fence. —New York Times.

It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by A. R. Fisher, Druggist.

Concluded He Wouldn't. Briggs—Why, old man, I thought you had gone away on your vacation. I saw you down town the other day buying a lot of outting clothes.
